CAUTIONARY STATEMENTS

In this presentation, “Decisive” or the “Corporation” means Decisive Dividend Corporation and, where the context requires, its operating subsidiaries.

FORWARD LOOKING INFORMATION

Certain statements in this report constitute forward-looking information and forward-looking statements. All statements other than statements of historical fact contained in this report are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking information includes, without limitation, statements regarding the future financial position, operations, business strategy, future acquisitions, and the potential impact of completed acquisitions on the operations, financial condition, capital resources and business of the Company and its subsidiaries, the Company’s policy with respect to the amount and/or frequency of dividends, if any, budgets, forecasts, litigation, projected costs and plans and objectives of or involving the Company and/or its subsidiaries, as well as information relating to the future prospects of the Company and its operating subsidiaries, demand from customers, the timing of product sales and/or deliveries under existing customer contracts or significant orders received from customers, potential future acquisitions, and ongoing or planned initiatives to enhance margins and increase market share. Readers can identify many of these forward-looking statements by looking for words such as “believes”, “expects”, “could”, “will”, “may”, “intends”, “projects”, “anticipates”, “plans”, “estimates”, “continues” and similar words or the negative and grammatical variations thereof.

Forward-looking statements are necessarily based upon a number of expectations or assumptions that, while considered reasonable by management at the time the statements are made, are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive risks, uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond the Company’s control and many of which are subject to change. Readers are cautioned to not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements which only speak as to the date they are made. Although management believes that the expectations and assumptions underlying such forward-looking statements are reasonable, there can be no assurance that such expectations or assumptions will prove to be correct. A number of risk factors could cause actual future results, performance, achievements and developments of the Company to differ materially from anticipated results, performance, achievements and developments expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such risk factors include, but are not limited to: (i) operational risks, including risks related to acquisitions; dependence on customers, distributors and strategic relationships; supply and cost of raw materials and purchased parts; operational performance and growth; implementation of the growth strategy; product liability and warranty claims; litigation; reliance on technology, intellectual property, and information systems; (ii) financial risks, including risks relating to the availability of future financing; interest rates and debt financing; income tax matters; foreign exchange; dividends; trading volatility of common shares; dilution risk; (iii) external risks, including risks relating to general economic conditions; government regulation (including trade restrictions and tariffs); pandemics; competition; environmental regulation; access to capital; market trends and innovation; climate risk; general uninsured losses; and (iv) human capital risks, including reliance on management and key personnel; employee and labour relations; and conflicts of interest, all as more particularly described in the most recent Annual Information Form of the Corporation available on the Corporation’s profile at www.sedarplus.ca.

Assumptions about the performance of the businesses of the Corporation are considered in setting the business plan and financial targets for the Corporation and its businesses. Key assumptions include assumptions relating to the demand for products and services of the businesses of the Corporation and relating to the Canadian and other markets in which the businesses are active. Should one or more of the risks materialize or the assumptions prove incorrect, actual results, performance or achievements of the Corporation may vary materially from those described in forward-looking statements.

All forward-looking statements contained herein are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement. Except as required by law, the Corporation disclaims any obligation to update any forward-looking information or forward-looking statements to reflect future events or results or otherwise.

NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

In this presentation, in discussing the financial performance of the Corporation, reference may be made to “Adjusted EBITDA”, “Free Cash Flow”, “Growth Capital Expenditures”, “Maintenance Capital Expenditures”, “Dividend Payout Ratio” and “Return on Invested Capital”, which management of the Corporation believes are meaningful in the assessment of financial performance. These measures are not recognized financial measures under International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) and therefore may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other issuers. A reader should not place undue reliance on any Non-IFRS financial measures. The detailed descriptions of these Non-IFRS financial measures included in Decisive’s Management’s Discussion and Analysis (available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com) under the heading “Non-IFRS Financial Measures” are incorporated by reference into this presentation, as are the quantitative reconciliations to their most directly comparable IFRS financial measure.

THE CATALYST

- According to the Canadian Federation of Independent Business, 76% of business owners plan to exit their business within the next 10 years - meaning that over $2 trillion worth of business assets could change hands during this period
- Decisive’s (buy, build, hold) business model addresses concerns that resonate with legacy minded, exiting business owners

Expected business exit date, by year, 2018 and 2022 (% response)

Essential factors for owners when selling their business (% response)

WHAT WE DO

BUY

Acquire profitable, well-established, high quality manufacturing companies with enterprise values up to $25M

BUILD

Support the long-term success of the businesses acquired, with resources to help them achieve their potential

HOLD

Continue the business legacies of the vendors whose companies we acquire in the communities they are located. We do not buy a company to sell it

SUMMARY

- The diversified nature of Decisive's portfolio, the differentiated products it produces, and steps taken by leadership in over the last year, including product and customer development and investments in growth capital expenditures, have better positioned Decisive's businesses for long-term organic growth.
- Decisive reported its strongest first quarter in the company's history in Q1 2025, after reporting its with strongest fourth quarter in Q4 2024 putting Decisive back on the path of improving per share financial metrics (on a trailing twelve-month basis), which is the path of value creating growth.
- To date 2025 consolidated order levels have outpaced the same periods in both 2023 and 2024, while being based on more balanced contributions from across the Group. Exited Q1 2025 with 60% higher backlogs than it had at the end of Q1 2024, and to date Q2 2025 order levels, continue to outpace Q2 2024 and Q2 2023 order levels.
- Decisive is currently somewhat insulated from the direct impact of tariffs as substantially all products manufactured by the Group and sold into the U.S. are compliant with the Canada-United States-Mexico Agreement.
- The Company's strong acquisition pipeline continues to grow and near-term Decisive focus on acquisitions that reduce exposure to some of the prevailing headwinds resulting from current U.S. trade policy.
- Decisive Dividend Corporation is poised for continued growth and improved performance in Q2 2025, with supportive lenders and shareholders, demonstrated progress around operational initiatives and new product introductions, while pursuing further strategic acquisitions.
